Syllabus or Syllabi means a document that communicates course information and defines expectations and responsibilities;

Tutor means an individual engaged or employed by a Member to deliver Approved Training;

UKATA means UK Asbestos Training Association Limited;

Verification means the process of verifying that training has met the requirements of the relevant standards, Syllabi, Guidance and appropriate Specification Documents.

Verifier means an appointed individual responsible for evaluating training materials to ensure compliance with the relevant Syllabi.

INTRODUCTION

1. UKATA provides the opportunity for Members to apply for approval of an Additional Course from the Portfolio of Additional Course Syllabi available.
2. Members must comply with the relevant application process, course Syllabi, Policies, Guidance and appropriate Specification Documents in order to gain and retain the Additional Course approval. Failure to meet these requirements may result in the Additional Course being withdrawn from the Member.

SYLLABUS

3. This application Guidance relates to the Asbestos Awareness Syllabus and the Duty to Manage Syllabus. The latest Syllabi can be found on the UKATA website, www.ukata.org.uk/resources-area/.

FEES

4. This Additional Course will be subject to an Application Fee and Additional Course Approval Fee and thereafter subject to an Annual Additional Course Approval Fee in accordance with the Fee Schedule.

CRITERIA

5. A Member will not be permitted to apply for approval of, or continuation of, an Additional Course if they are subject to Sanctions.

APPLICATION

6. Before completing a new application for this Additional Course, Members must have read and understood the UKATA Rules of Membership.
7. Members must complete the Additional Course Application form and upload the following documentation:
 - a) Tutor details to include:
 - i. Current CV;
 - ii. Relevant certificates/qualifications.
 - b) Training materials to include:
 - i. Power Point or PDF course presentation;
 - ii. Tutor Narrative;
 - iii. Exam Paper;
 - iv. Training needs analysis (desirable);
 - v. Lesson plan (desirable).
8. The Tutor must be Employed by the Member and must have previously been successfully audited.

9. The Tutor information shall be reviewed by UKATA, on a case by case basis, to ensure the Tutor is suitably qualified and experienced to deliver the course.
10. If the Tutor is not accepted, further information and/or supporting evidence may be required to support the Tutors qualifications and experience.
 - a) If the further information and/or supporting evidence is not sufficient, an alternative Tutor, subject to paragraph 8, may be submitted for review;
 - b) If the Member has no Tutor that is suitably qualified and experienced to deliver the course, the application will be deemed to have failed.
11. If the Tutor is accepted, the application will be processed and an invoice will be raised for payment in accordance with the terms stated on the invoice.
12. Upon receipt of payment, the Member's File Handler shall review the submission to ensure all details and documents are correct to proceed to Verification. UKATA will not be responsible for any delays caused by inaccuracies on the application. It is the Members' responsibility to ensure that all information and documents are accurate.
13. Upon receipt of payment the Member will have six months to complete the application process.
 - a) Members who withdraw their application within six months will be deemed to have failed the application process and the application will be archived. The Application Fee is non-refundable;
 - b) Members who fail to complete the application process within six months will be deemed to have failed the application process and the application will be archived. The Application Fee is non-refundable.

VERIFICATION

14. Verifications shall be undertaken by a Verifier.
15. Course materials and any accompanying documents received from the Member are submitted to the Verifier for Verification against the relevant Syllabi and Guidance.
16. Members will be entitled to two verifications as part of their application Fees paid. For a third (and final) Verification, additional Fees will apply in accordance with the Fee Schedule.
17. A period of ten business days is required for the Verifier to assess the materials and confirm the outcome of the Verification.
18. The outcome of the Verification will be confirmed as a pass or fail:
 - a) Pass - the training materials have been approved as compliant with the relevant Syllabus and Guidance;
 - b) Fail – the training materials are not compliant with the relevant Syllabus and Guidance. Amendments are required in accordance with the Verifiers report and must be submitted for further Verification within five business days.

19. UKATA shall not accept any course materials that have been significantly changed beyond the scope of the required amendments outlined in the Verification report.
20. If the third Verification fails, the application will be placed on hold and referred to the General Manager for consideration and a response provided to the Member within five business days.

ADDITIONAL COURSE APPROVAL

21. An invoice shall be raised for the Additional Course Approval Fee and payment is required by the terms stated on the invoice.
22. The approval of the Additional Course shall not be confirmed until payment has been received and only when confirmed by UKATA. Approval will not be applied retrospectively.
23. The Additional Course will be added to the Members current website listing on the UKATA website directory and added to the Certificate Generator.

CONTINUING OBLIGATIONS

24. All Members must continue to uphold the standards set by UKATA for Additional Courses.
25. Training materials verified and approved by UKATA must be the training materials used when delivering UKATA training.
26. UKATA shall inform Members of any changes required to training materials which may include, but is not limited to:
 - a) Changes in HSE Regulations and supporting ACoP and Guidance;
 - b) Changes in epidemiology;
 - c) Changes to UKATA information slides or best practice guidelines;
 - d) Changes to the UKATA Syllabi.
27. Subject to paragraph 37 above, course materials cannot be changed throughout the Additional Course approval period. Any change must be notified to UKATA and may be subject to a Verification Fee.
28. UKATA reserves the right to request the resubmission of course materials and/or require an Audit of course delivery at any time. In such circumstances Fees may apply which will be borne by the Member.
29. UKATA may, at its absolute discretion, commission an Auditor to undertake a spot check Audit upon a Member, at no cost to the Member. UKATA shall not be required to give reason to the Member for this action but if UKATA consider that the Audit so undertaken is materially less acceptable than the Audit upon which the current Additional Course approval is based, then the spot check Audit supersedes the initial Audit and the Additional Course application process shall be resurrected. Costs associated with that Additional Course application shall be borne by the Member.
30. Each Member must have an Employed and audited Tutor at the highest level of membership and must maintain suitable professional competency and up to date CPD. Should the Employed and audited Tutor leave the Member's organisation UKATA require Members to notify them of any change to the Members Employed Tutor. The Member must replace the Employed Tutor or cease to offer Approved Training services. Failure to replace the Employed and audited Tutor will result in Sanctions being imposed on a Member.

31. Should the Employed and audited Tutor approved to deliver the Additional Course leave the Member's organisation, Sanctions will apply.
